

I support this petition and request the FCC uphold the suggested morse code requirements for the General and Extra Class amateur radio license, and keep amateur radio at the unique and highly skilled communications level that it is.